

TELEVISION Programme guide by David Stuckey and Len Capeling

BBC Wales

- 6.30 BREAKFAST TIME with Nick Ross and Selina Scott. Doctor's Surgery 6.45; Gardening 7.30; Food and Cooking 8.45.
- 9.00 FOR SCHOOLS, COLLEGES.
- 12.30 NEWS AFTER NOON. WEATHER.
- 12.57 WALES HEADLINES.
- 1.00 PEBBLE MILL AT ONE from Bergerac country (otherwise known as Jersey) where, among other delights, we get a rare view of one of the greatest orchid collections in the world. These exotic blooms are the passion of wealthy businessman Eric Young and few members of the public have seen the flowers, which are worth millions of pounds.
- 1.45 KING ROLLO.
- 1.50 BRIC-A-BRAC.
- 2.02 FOR SCHOOLS, COLLEGES.
- 2.35 I YSGOLION: HWNT AC YMA.
- 3.00 BONANZA. In which Candy (David Canary) finds things are far from sweet when he inherits a mining claim worth a fortune.
- 3.53 WALES HEADLINES.
- 3.55 PLAY SCHOOL presented by Carol Leader and Stuart McGugan.
- 4.20 YOGI BEAR in Spy Guy.
- 4.25 JACKANORY. Jana Sheldon reads the final part of Betsy Byars' The Animal, the Vegetable and John D. Jones.
- 4.40 FINDERS, KEEPERS. Richard Stilgoe's fast-moving game of electronic battleships.
- 5.05 THE BAKER STREET BOYS.
- 5.35 PADDINGTON visits the theatre.
- 5.40 NEWS: WEATHER.
- 6.00 WALES TODAY.
- 6.22 NATIONWIDE including at 6.45, Sports- with Des Lynam.
- 7.00 TOM AND JERRY in Hic-cup Pup and Advance and be Mechanised.
- 7.10 THE RETURN OF CAPTAIN NEMO. The sound you hear is that of Jules Verne spinning in his grave, and no wonder. This load of tosh has Captain Nemo being woken from a state of suspended animation to help the United States fight off evil genius Burgess Meredith, who's threatening to destroy Washington (Jose Ferrer plays Nemo (is he still sleep-walking?), the other bad news is that it's a three parter!)
- 8.00 THE FOURTH ARM. You might know. Someone's stiff upper-lip has slipped and the mission is a man down. With the entire operation facing failure (and there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth), Major Gallagher (Paul Shelley) seeks advice from Professor Evans (Gerald James).
- 8.50 POINTS OF VIEW presented by Barry Took.
- 9.00 NEWS: WEATHER.
- 9.25 CAGNEY AND LACEY. Cagney injured while on duty has to be replaced. Unfortunately, her stand-in proves to be something of a spark in a keg of dynamite. Stars Tyne Daley and Al Waxman.
- 10.15 WORLD FIGURE SKATING CHAMPIONSHIPS. Over to Helsinki where tonight's big event is the Ladies' Free Programme. Going into the final phases, last year's winner Elaine Zayak (USA) was in seventh place. So she'll have to go some to hang on to the title.
- 10.45 WEEK IN WEEK OUT. People, places and events in Wales and beyond.
- 11.35 WALES HEADLINES.
- 11.36 THE LATE FILM: Pete Kelly's Blues (1955). The Jazz Age given a whirl by Jack Webb who both acts (woodenly) and directs (dragging his heels). Quite by accident—in all probability—it turns out to be a fairly convincing re-enactment of the sights and sounds of the times. Peggy Lee is good value as ill-starred nightclub chanteuse and Ella sings as only she can.
- 1.07 WALES WEATHER. 1.10 CLOSE.

BBC 2

- 6.05 OPEN UNIVERSITY. See guide.
- 11.00 PLAY SCHOOL presented by Carol Leader and Stuart McGugan.
- 5.10 ABC IN KANSAS CITY. Further coverage of the 1976 Republican Convention and the role played therein by the cavalcade of floor reporters. The presentation of events on television compares starkly with the recollections of delegates.
- 5.35 THE SAINT IN PALM SPRINGS (1941). Peckinpah's final bow as Leslie Charteris's evergreen. He's up against a "desperate gang of thieves" and his comic sidekick Pearly Gates (Paul Guilfoyle) is too busy being overawed by the Saint's prowess to be of much help.
- 6.40 TONY DURY: To Be a Lunatic. Made for Schools broadcasting, would you believe. The songs are about "mental disturbances" and Dury goes inside a psychiatric hospital to discuss the lyrics with teenage patients.
- 7.05 NEWS SUMMARY: WEATHER.
- 7.10 OXFORD ROAD SHOW. Music from The Cure and reggae band Black Roots, debut appearance for Ton Tons Macoute, a Sheffield outfit.
- 7.50 DID YOU SEE...? Author Martin Amis, poet Charles Causley and Yorkshire GP Dr Mary Cleary discuss the profile of Kurt Vonnegut in Arena. The Citadel and Time with Betjeman. As a postscript, Professor Laurie Taylor wonders what our view of the world would be if we only had television to learn from.
- 8.35 GARDENERS' WORLD. Following up Pebble Mill's visit to Jersey with a trek around Geraldurrell's Wildlife Preservation Trust. Twenty-five acres of landscaped gardens for Roy Lancaster to explore.
- 9.00 THE LAST SONG. "Live a little" is the advice given the pining Lee (Geoffrey Palmer) in tonight's episode. However, a close encounter of the romantic kind with an attractive young neighbour (Rachel Davies) leaves him in situation he can't control. Lucky dog.
- 9.30 POCKETFUL OF DREAMS. Splendid little spoof first seen in March 1982 when it had the critics reaching for the superlatives. Michael Elphick and Philip Jackson are enterprising villains who decide to carry out their next bank job disguised as a film crew shooting what else but a bank heist. The lads quickly learn how to handle the movie gear and are soon absorbed in the artistic side of the job. The bank co-operates with the enterprise and nothing, it seems can go wrong. Wanna bet?
- 10.05 CARNIVAL IN RIO. The biggest street party in the world witnessed by Anne Nightingale and Ivan Lessa. An explosion of colour and high spirits transforming Rio into Carnival City.
- 10.55 NEWSNIGHT.
- 11.45 CRIME INTERNATIONAL: Payment in Kind (1979). Czech director Jaromil Jires taking a frank look at small-town life through the eyes of a city lawyer forced to move to the mountains for the sake of his health. He immediately finds that justice outside the high courts has a very different flavour to it. Rabbit flavoured, perhaps? Stars Milos Kopecky and Alena Vranova.
